What's Happening at Crossways?

With our Open Day around the corner, if there is someone you know who wants to find out more about Crossways, encourage them to attend on Thursday 22nd August to look around the school and go on a tour.

Haesil Kim hosted a number of classes in the Science Lab for Science Week. There were lots of fun learning activities which we thank her for providing.

Last week we farewelled Sheridyn Giles as she went on Maternity Leave. We wish her all the best and all God's blessings as her and Chris await the birth of their child. We welcome Rhiannon Cannard into the Year 2 class.

If you haven't checked out our Book Week display, head to the Chapel and see it. We are using this week to further encourage the joy of reading.

Kyle Freeman and Mia Nicholls spent an afternoon at the Ceduna Arts Centre preparing for the Illuminart display on the Thevenard Silos.

Quality – a devotional thought

On a recent trip to Port Lincoln I took the opportunity to visit Coffin Bay and learn about how Oysters are grown. They explained how different water conditions impacted on the growth of the oysters, and the method of adjusting the height of the oyster baskets to maximize the quality of the oysters.

How do we maximize our own quality? Certainly as a school, we are always mindful of fostering quality in learning. We want our students to develop into quality people who are well on the way to maximizing their gifts and talents. Also in the picture is a God who promises to use all our life experiences to help grow our gifts and abilities, and maybe to help us find ones we didn't think we had. Jesus encourages us to not keep the good gifts he's given us hidden. By using our gifts, '... they will see the good things you do. And they will bring glory to your Father who is in heaven.' Matthew 5:16.

Junior School PE

We have been having a lot of fun in Junior School PE lessons this term with skipping and locomotion activities. The skipping rope is a fantastic way to build fitness and coordination. The ELC children have been joining the Reception class to work on locomotion skills that will help them work towards being able to skip such as hopping, jumping and leaping.

The Year 1 and 2's are continuing to work on their locomotion skills through games and activities as well as learning how to skip with long ropes and short ropes.

The Year 3- 5's are having a great time expanding on their skipping skills and some have mastered some tricky moves like the skier, the bell, scissors and the straddle. Next we will be trying out some complex long rope skills including the egg beater and double dutch as well as some partner skills! The Year 4/5 class are working towards a skipping routine to music which we are hoping to show off later in the term.

If you have a rope at home, it would be great to dust it off and have your children show off what they have been learning. Perhaps you have some fancy moves to show off as well!

I cannot believe the term is almost half way through. Where has the time gone?

Middle school life is very busy with a range of events being organised or taking place along with the day-to-day life.

Colour fun run

Some members of the SRC team and a helper or two are actively involved in creating a fundraising event for the end of the term. Nykita Miller, Mia Nicholls and Joshua Austin have been spending time planning a colour fun run to take place in week 10 on Tuesday the 24th of September. We will keep you up-to-date with more information over the term. This will be a family fun day starting with a celebration of learning then fun and games for the remainder of the day.

Cupcake sales

Our SRC team have also been busy baking cupcakes to fund-raise for the Australian Lutheran World Service charity – all the money we raise at school this year will be donated to help the less fortunate overseas providing an education and better living conditions.

So far this year we have raised over $200 dollars, which gives 5 children and education for the year.

Marni Wingku – Adelaide camp

Ten Year 7-10 indigenous students will have the opportunity to do a fully funded 2-day trip to Adelaide University where they will be involved in a range of confidence boosting activities and seeing what a future at University may look like for them. They will have the chance to meet other indigenous students from around the state and further their connections. We are looking at students who do the following regularly:

Attend school

Have a positive attitude towards their learning and try their best

Wear the correct uniform – formal and PE on the timetable day/s

This trip is scheduled in week 10, departing Tuesday evening the 24th of September and returning Thursday the 26th, (by plane) Tim Steeles (School chaplain) and myself will be taking the group. The students selected will be announced by the end of week 6 which only gives those who really want to participate 10 school days to make sure they attend and are in the correct uniform. Please support your child and encourage them to wear their school uniform with pride.

Promoting our school

Last Friday Azarni Coleman and Darryll Coleman helped run a free sausage sizzle in front of Foodland to help promote the school. Mrs Ridley, Miss Giles and I also supported the students with handing out information packs.

Friday Clubs

It's always a challenge encouraging students to mix with peers outside their daily social groups. Moving beyond social "Comfort Zones" is not easy for anyone and is an area we as teachers are always trying to persuade students to explore.

For this reason, we are trialling "Friday Clubs" in Middle School during lesson six each Friday afternoon. All Middle School students nominate their preferred activity on offer and are then placed into mixed gender and age groups.

The activities on offer are divided into outdoor and indoor categories, with myself running a sport-based group, while Mrs Kim and Miss Norsworthy provide an art-based or STEM option.

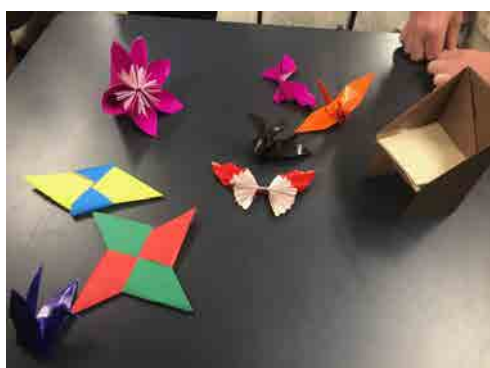

The results so far have been very encouraging with students from mixed year levels seemingly happy and comfortable working alongside each other.

We are also looking for parents and carers who wish to provide expertise in any areas such as music, sport, art etc... that we could incorporate into Friday Clubs.

Please contact myself through our front office if you have any suggestions.

Kind regards,

Mr. Carl Woodward - Middle School Teacher.
