Principal's Word - Tony Peters

The school is embarking on a new strategic plan. In short, a strategic plan is a working and flexible document which outlines key goals and targets for specific areas of work. It also outlines how we are going to achieve those goals. The 5 key areas of work which the school will focus on are-

- Community Building
- Excellence in Learning
- Ongoing Improvement and Innovation
- Lutheran Identity and,
- Organisation & Management

These 5 areas of work are found in a document which Lutheran Education Australia put together for all Lutheran schools across Australia as the Leadership and formation framework.

One way in which we are going to get some feedback on how well we are doing here at Crossways, is through a 'health check' survey. In the coming weeks, as families of Crossways, you will have the opportunity to respond to this survey. The survey should only take 15 minutes and will be available to do online or on hard copy.

We will also have staff that can assist you with the survey if you require it. Please keep an eye out for details of this survey so that we can have as many families as possible having input.

The responses and results from the survey will provide goals and targets for our new Strategic Plan which will, in turn, provide vision for our Master Plan. In short, the Master Plan will be a working and flexible document which identifies buildings and facilities that we need for the school.

This is an exciting time for the school. Careful and effective planning is critical so that Crossways remains in a sustainable and thriving position to grow.

Thanks be to God who continues to provide abundantly. Importantly, the foundation of Lutheran education at Crossways, is the gospel of Jesus Christ which informs all learning and teaching, all human relationships and all activities.

Middle School Art

This term our focus has been on Painting. It's always a topic where students get enjoyment in art class as they grow their skills and experiments with paint. So far, this term we have used watercolour and acrylic paints. Middle school students started a new front fence project where they designed sea creatures to replace the Australian animals, which are looking a bit old and tired. We hope to have this project completed by the end of the term. Students have learnt about the process including design, transferring to the appropriate size, getting their work cut out by Ceduna Steel fabrications, then sealing their piece before starting their painting using exterior house paints, followed by sealing their finished piece and evaluating their work. The Year 6/7 class went on excursion to The Ceduna Aboriginal Arts Centre where they had local artists help them use impasto in their work. It was great to be able to get the students off campus and see the wonderful work our local artists create along with getting direction and advice.

Reward time:

Reward time continues to be something for students to strive for each week. Keep encouraging your child/ren to attend school daily, try their best in class and treat others with respect to make it to the reward list. The Ceduna playground has been a hit as students keep asking to go back. This week we will combine the Ceduna Playground with a beach walk.

Sara Veerhuis - Choir

Term two has been super busy for music at Crossways! The highlight for me this term is our choir visits to various places in the community. All three of our choirs have ventured out to places such as the Senior Citizens Village, Minya Bunhii, Possums Corner, Ceduna Foreshore Caravan Park and Shelley Beach Caravan Park to perform for both locals and tourist visiting our beautiful town.

Choir students have displayed tremendous talent and bravery with these performance excursions, and it is so rewarding to see their confidence growing with each show. It is also fantastic to see so many students putting their hands up to sing solos. It takes a lot of courage and the students willing to do this should be enormously proud of themselves. Keep up the great work choirs!

The remainder of our music program is going strong this term with the middle school music students furthering their skills on their chosen instruments. We have some talented drummers learning new songs each week and have even managed to form a small student band on a couple of occasions. A special mention to Charlotte and Halle who are really excelling on the keyboard thanks to lots of practise at home!

Thank you to all the places that have allowed our choir to perform and to Jenny and Kat Guidera for driving the school bus for our excursions.

This Thursday at 1pm the Middle School Choir will be performing at the Ceduna Foreshore Hotel in the Bistro during lunch service. Please feel free to come along and support our music students.
