Principal's Word - Tony Peters

This week's devotional theme is

ALMIGHTY.

God the almighty and we read in Revelation 1:8, 'The Master declares, "I'm A to Z. I'm THE GOD WHO IS, THE GOD WHO WAS, AND THE GOD ABOUT TO ARRIVE. I'm the Sovereign-Strong." (The Message)

When I was a young fellow, many years ago, I went to church and most of the time it was under sufferance. I still remember all those years ago, me and my siblings being very quiet on a Sunday morning, hoping that our extra stillness would allow our parents to sleep in and we wouldn't make it to church. It worked out a couple of times! Back then I couldn't make meaning by being at church and there wasn't any purpose for me but I went because its what was expected from my parents. Thankfully, there was a Sunday school which I attended and it was there where I learnt and remembered some key facts about God. Years later, probably when I was a young teen, it all started falling into place and one of the things which stuck with me was a small sticker I received at one Sunday school session, it read 'God is love'. Many years reflecting on this declaration, I believe summarises in a nut-shell who God really is.

He is the almighty because he loves us so much that he sent his son into the world to walk among us, and then to sacrifice his own life so that we can have life. Now, that's true love! That's almighty love and can only come from God- the almighty one!

Year 3 News

Wow! It has been such a busy Term 4 in Year 3!! In Week 2 we headed to Streaky Bay on camp. It was great to see the students in a different environment and see them show such beautiful manner when out in public. Some of our highlights were:

- Swimming
- Pub Dinner
- Murphys Haystacks
- The Museum

At school, we have been loving using our laptops to type our narratives, learning about maps in Maths and Braille and Morse Code in Technology. Another highlight was the Science Day which we loved exploring all the different activities.

It has been such a pleasure seeing the Year 3's grow this year academically but also in their resilience and maturity! I am so proud of each and every one of them and how far they have come!

Music Report

Term 4 is an especially busy term for music at Crossways! I always love this time of the year as the choirs and the instrumental students have had the whole year to work on their skills and now they have the confidence and opportunity to share them!

Choirs

So far this term we have had many choir visits out in the community to places such as the Senior Citizens Village, the Ceduna Foreshore Caravan Park, Possums Corner and Ngura Yadurirn. But it's not over yet! Later this term the Choirs will also be performing at our first ever Carnival of the Arts as well as making an appearance at Ceduna Foodland the following day to sing Christmas carols to the shoppers. The choirs will also be performing for the Celebration of Learning at the end of the school year. Another exciting opportunity for the Junior and Middle School Choirs is an upcoming radio appearance! That's right! Early next week we will be having two expert sound engineers travel here from Port Lincoln to do a short recording of both Choirs each singing a Christmas song to be played on the radio. Make sure you're tuned into Flow FM over the Christmas break to hear our students' beautiful voices.

Band

Our band elective has been great fun this term with the addition and support of LSO, Winston, on the lead guitar. Our band named 'Sound Waves' features Amalie Champion - rhythm guitar and vocals, Mia Roberts - rhythm guitar and vocals, Neeka Pridoux - bass guitar and vocals, Halle Miller - keyboard and vocals and Riley Shepherd on the drums. All band students have worked hard this term and look forward to showcasing their talents at the Carnival of the Arts in week 8. I look forward to seeing you all there! I'd like to take a moment to thank Mr. Peters and Mrs. Evans for their support with the choir excursions over the course of the year and a big thank you to Winston too for his harmonious guitar playing and support. Wishing you all a happy and safe Christmas and a blessed 2022.
