Principal's Word - Greg Miller

Dear Students, Parents, and Guardians,
As we embark on the Easter season, a time of profound significance in the Christian faith, we are reminded of the miraculous story of Jesus' resurrection. This timeless narrative serves as a beacon of hope, renewal, and eternal promise for believers around the world. This week, I am delighted to share with you the timeless message of Luke 24:6-7, which encapsulates the essence of Easter and its enduring significance in our lives. In Luke 24:6-7, we encounter the angel's proclamation to the women at the empty tomb: "He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Man must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'" These words encapsulate the miracle of Easter—the triumph of life over death, light over darkness, and hope over despair. For our students, the story of Jesus' resurrection holds profound lessons of courage, resilience, and unwavering faith. It serves as a reminder that even in the face of seemingly insurmountable obstacles, there is always the promise of renewal and new beginnings. As they navigate the challenges of adolescence and education, may they draw strength from the timeless message of Easter and embrace the journey with faith and determination.

Parents and guardians play a vital role in nurturing their children's spiritual growth and understanding of the Easter story.

As we celebrate this sacred occasion, let us take this opportunity to engage in meaningful conversations with our children, exploring the deeper significance of Jesus' resurrection and its relevance in our lives today. Through open dialogue, reflection, and prayer, may we deepen our appreciation for the miracle of Easter and its transformative power.

As we reflect on the miracle of Easter, may we be inspired by the unwavering faith of those who witnessed Jesus' resurrection. Let us approach this season with hearts full of gratitude, minds open to wonder, and spirits renewed with hope.

Wishing you all a blessed and joyous Easter season.

Warm regards,

Greg Miller, Principal

Working Together Towards a Brighter Future

Music with SARA

Hi Crossways Community!

I'm delighted to share the latest news from the Middle School music department at Crossways. The beginning of this school year has brought forth a wonderful start for our musical endeavors.

I'm thrilled to announce the establishment of two vibrant choirs: the Junior School Choir (years 1-4) and the Middle School Choir (years 5-10). Both groups boast remarkable talent, and we've been actively exploring new musical material together.

Notably, the dedication of our middle school choir students is truly commendable. They have enthusiastically opted for two sessions per week, even sacrificing their lunch break once a week. Their eagerness to engage with choir is inspiring!

In addition to choir activities, I've been busy offering keyboard/piano, singing, and drum lessons to enthusiastic individuals. I'm also pleased to report that Mr. Colbung has been providing guitar and bass guitar lessons to small groups of students, fostering growth and enthusiasm in our music program.

Our Middle School electives band, the Treble Teens, has been embracing new challenges and dynamics within the group. Despite changes in membership, including the departure of some members from last year, the band continues to thrive. We gather every Friday to learn new songs and share our music at school assemblies and events such as the fete.

Speaking of the fete, were you too truly amazed by the abundance of talent showcased by our students on stage? It was a moment of immense pride, particularly for those who stepped out of their comfort zones to deliver solo performances. Witnessing their confidence and expression was a true blessing.

In conclusion, we are immensely proud of the growth and accomplishments within our music community at Crossways. We look forward to nurturing and celebrating the musical talents of our students in the months to come.

Warm regards, Sara Veerhuis - Music Facilitator

School based Traineeships & Apprenticeship

Last week Brenton Schubert came in to speak with our senior class about School Based Traineeships and Apprenticeships. It was great to have someone very knowledgeable of the content, who works with apprentices from our region, visit and inform the students of what options they have in the world of Trades.

Next Term Frew Halbert and myself will be working with the senior class to plan work experience for week 9 of Term 2. The class will be informed of options available in Ceduna and start to make inquiries to businesses of where they could go for the experience. This will be a great opportunity for students to get a taste of certain work spaces and see if that is something they would like to do in the future. We will be working with the students in assuring they are prepared for the work week including expectations on phone use, being on time, personal presentation and ensure they make good impressions on their first day.

Domestic Violence presentation to the Year 9/10 Class

This Wednesday we have a guest speaker coming into to talk to the senior class about Domestic Violence and her story of survival. Thanks to Tiana Mullan from Centracare, our students have been offered this session to educate and support our youth.

"My name is Sheree. I am an educator, daughter, sister, friend and a survivor of domestic violence. I can proudly say this because one female dies each week at the hands of her current or former partner."

Sheree will talk about strength, survival, empowerment and freedom. I look forward to being part of this presentation this week.
